View from Norway
Senior Adviser Mads Gravås, Ministry of Education and Research, Department of Higher Education
The Lisbon strategy affects Norway (1)

- Norway is an active part in “OMC-related activities”; for instance:
  - Member of the Education and training 2010 Coordination Group (ETCG).
  - Member of Standing Group on Indicators and benchmarks (SGIB)
  - Taking part in 5 out of 8 Clusters
  - (Taking part in Lifelong learning programme (LLP))
- Participation in Clusters and Peer Learning activities provides a platform for a real exchange of practice, knowledge and understanding between participating countries
The Lisbon strategy affects Norway (2)

- Increased internationalisation gives Norway an indication of our strong and weak sides.
- Comparisons with other countries contributes to quality enhancement and policy development in education and research.
Challenges

- The dissemination of lessons learned with OMC.
- Overt political implementation