

JOINT DECLARATION

Mutual recognition of conformity assessments

The Member States have agreed to include provisions on mutual recognition in relation to conformity assessments in the Convention on the understanding that the arrangements made under Articles 53 and 59 of the Convention (consolidated version) and Article 10 of Annex I will not impair the good functioning of the co-operation, including as regards with the European Community, in this field. The Member States will review these arrangements if necessary.
